Child Protection Policy Statement

The child's welfare is paramount.

All children whatever their age, culture, disability, gender, language, racial origin, religious belief and/or sexual identity, have the right to protection from abuse..

INSAN strictly follows 5 basic rules

- 1- Having zero-tolerance for child abuse.
- 2- Protecting children's rights and their best interests.
- 3-All suspicions and allegations of inappropriate behavior will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately
- 4-Empowering and educating children on their rights, personal safety and steps they can take, if there is a problem.
- 5- Integrating child protection into all aspects of our organizational strategy, structures and work practices.

Child protection policy

INSAN Child Protection Policy is made up of several components, all with the goal of keeping children and youth safe. It includes specific child protection principles, guidelines for reporting incidents, steps for preventing abuse, training for Initiative for Social Action Foundation (INSAN) staff, the rules we follow for using information in print and web materials and safety measures for sponsor-beneficiary interactions.
