Initiative for Social Action Foundation (ISAF)

ISAF Mandatory Training policy

Initiative for Social Action Foundations are mandatory training requirements, particularly related to financial accountability, these trainings aim to enhance transparency, ensure compliance with regulations, and safeguard against misuse of funds. Additionally, NGOs may be required to undergo training on Protection of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (PSEA) and other relevant procedures .

Key Areas of Mandatory Training

Financial Management and Compliance

Initiative for Social Action Foundation s are expected to undergo training on financial management, including accounting practices, reporting requirements, and adherence financing regulations .

Good Governance and Ethics

Training may cover topics such as ethical conduct, conflict of interest, and adherence to codes of conduct .

PSEA and Safeguarding:

Initiative for Social Action Foundations are increasingly will be provide mandatory training on PSEA and other safeguarding measures to protect vulnerable individuals and communities .

Training Delivery Methods:

Online and In-Person Training:

Training can be delivered through various methods, including online courses, workshops, and in-person sessions .

Capacity Building Programs:

The Initiative for Social Action Foundation will organize various programs to enhance the capacity of its employees and general beneficiaries in various fields .

Simulated Training:

Some training programs may incorporate simulated scenarios to provide practical experience and allow for learning from mistakes in a

Increased Effectiveness:

Initiative for Social Action foundations staff with the skills and knowledge needed to effectively manage their programs and achieve their objectives .

Protection of Beneficiaries

Training on PSEA and other safeguarding measures will be ensuring the safety and well-being of individuals and communities served by Initiative for Social Action Foundation.